

A promotional photograph for Toro lawn care equipment. Three men in high-visibility neon green shirts and tan caps are shown. One man stands on the left next to a red Toro GrandStand mower. A second man stands in the center, gesturing with his hand. A third man sits on a red Toro mower on the right, which is attached to a grey utility trailer. The scene is set on a grassy area with a modern brick and glass building in the background. A semi-transparent white box with a black border contains the main text.
